

THE HISTORY OF IRISH MUSIC

A Presentation by Charles Speierl, Ed.D.

 Saturday, March 14

 11:00 AM

 Lebanon Township Museum

 Free Admission

 Reservations Requested: museum@lebtwp.net

This program will examine the history, impact and survival of Irish music before, during and after the Great Famine and how it may have been heard by the Irish community living in Hampton and Glen Gardner. Various styles and genres of Irish music, that reflect the Irish experience in both Ireland and America, will be covered. In addition to dance music, period tunes illustrating the preservation and survival of Irish cultural identity, associated with resistance and the famine experience, will be included.
